Crewe Road, Airedale, Castleford WF10 3JU – Tel: 01977 664555 – Fax: 01977 664556

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the voluntary role of Local Governor on one of the Academy Councils within Northern Ambition Academies Trust.

Northern Ambition Academies Trust currently comprises four schools located within a one-mile radius in Castleford, West Yorkshire: one secondary school - Airedale Academy – and three primary phase schools - Airedale Infants School, Airedale Junior School and Oyster Park Primary School. As a MAT we have been established since 2014, but we are now looking to build capacity for the next stage of our development by adding to local governors to the Academy Councils of our schools.

Children are at the centre of what we do: specifically encouraging children from some of the most disadvantaged communities in the country to dream big and then give them the tools to achieve those dreams. That's a bold ambition. But here at Northern Ambition Academies Trust we believe in dreaming big too

Our vision is of a world where all children and young people are given the opportunity to thrive, succeed and aspire. As a Trust:

- We believe that every child, whatever their background or circumstances, should be given the opportunity to flourish, succeed and dream.
- We believe that our schools have a duty to contribute to the improvement of our local communities and wider society.
- We believe that all schools within our Trust, irrespective of their starting points, bring something valuable to contribute to our success and the achievement of our collective goals.
- We believe in the importance of working together in the best interests of the children in our communities.

Our mission is for every child to leave our schools equipped with the essential skills they need to contribute effectively to society and to become well-rounded, confident, happy adults. To do this we believe in the following values and try to keep these at the heart of what we do:

Ambition

- We aim high and don't put limits on ourselves or other people;
- We are relentless in assessing our performance and seeking to continuously improve;
- We make the most of the opportunities offered to us to help us achieve our goals.

Bravery

- We try new things and see mistakes as an opportunity to learn;
- We don't shy away from tough decisions or difficult situations;
- We don't give up if things are hard.

Respect

- We think about the impact of our actions on others in the choices we make;
- We value what makes us different and believe everyone has something to contribute;
- We encourage honest, open debate and listen to constructive feedback about how to make things better.

Charitable organisations like ours cannot function without the time and support of a dedicated group of volunteers who help the executive team of the Trust ensure that the organisation runs effectively and achieves its core purpose. Local governors and Academy Councils are a key part of the Trust: they scrutinise and monitor the effectiveness of our schools, holding staff to account for the company's performance and the impact we have on the lives of the children. They act as a body of people with local knowledge and understanding, and act as a 'critical friend' in challenging and questioning decisions made by the management of the school to ensure that all angles have been considered and that they are in the best interests of the school and its community

As well as the benefits to our organisation of having skilled people supporting us in our corporate governance, being a local governor is a rewarding and enjoyable role. Governors come from all walks of life and being a local governor can help you meet new people, change things for the better, learn new skills or use your existing skills in a new context. It could be a way to build your CV, gain experience of management, to contribute something positive to society, or as a way to find out more about the not-for-profit sector before making a career change.

Being a governor can expose you to new experiences and new groups of people. It can also present you with new challenges. You are part of a team and will have the opportunity to add your unique skills and experience while learning from others too. Learning is a key part of the role, and our Trust firmly believes in ensuring that governors are given access to appropriate training opportunities which will help them undertake their role more effectively.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR LOCAL GOVERNORS

As a member of the Academy Council, governors must always have the wellbeing of the children and the reputation of the academy and Northern Ambition Academies Trust at heart; governors must do all they can to be an ambassador for the academy and Trust, publically supporting its aims, values and ethos and never saying or doing anything publically which would embarrass the academy, Trust, Academy Council or staff.

For Academy Councils to carry out their role effectively, governors must be:

- prepared and equipped to take their responsibilities seriously;
- willing to commit the necessary time to preparing for and participating in activities and meetings;
- clear about the difference between their role and that of the academy's executive staff;
- willing and able to monitor and review their own performance.

As a sub-committee of the Board, the Academy Council is a corporate body which means:

- No governor can act on his/her own without proper authority from the Academy Council;
- All governors carry equal responsibility for decisions made; and
- The overriding concern of all governors must be the welfare of the academy as a whole.

General

- We understand the purpose of the Academy Council as set out above.
- We will uphold and champion the Trust's guiding values of bravery, ambition and respect in our role within the Trust.
- We are aware of and accept the Nolan seven principles of public life:
 - Selflessness
Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends.
 - Integrity
Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.
 - Objectivity
In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit.
 - Accountability
Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.
 - Openness
Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.
 - Honesty
Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.
 - Leadership
Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

- We will encourage open governance and will act appropriately.

Breach of this code of practice

- If we believe this code has been breached, we will raise this issue with the Chair and they (or their nominee) will investigate; the Trust will only use suspension as a last resort after seeking to resolve any difficulties or disputes in more constructive ways;
- We understand that any allegation of a material breach of this code of practice by any governor shall be raised with the Trust Board, and, if agreed to be substantiated by a majority of Trustees, shall be minuted and can lead to consideration of suspension or removal from the Academy Council.
